

OXFORDSHIRE ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY
LIST AND INDEX OF REPORTS AND TRANSACTIONS, 1854-1957

The publications of the Oxfordshire Archaeological Society are a somewhat confusing series, inconsistently named as Reports or Transactions, often unnumbered, and varying between slim pamphlets and full volumes. Happily this bibliographic fog was cleared in 1949 when the 87th Report included a full listing of the contents of previous publications (perhaps by Howard Colvin), that forms the basis of the present list. A separate index was printed after 1957. Unfortunately, the revived Society was not to last for long, and while the next five Reports were published in Oxoniensia, the 92nd in 1957 was the last. The Society's minute books continue to 1971 until it amalgamated with the Oxford (subsequently Oxfordshire) Architectural and Historical Society in 1971-2.

This document contains

- (i) a scanned text of the 1949 list (extended to 1957), with a note of the Society's records in the Bodleian Library, and
- (ii) a copy of the 1957 index
